More Space for your Stories

Firekeeper. Chris Weaver. A teacher working with kids who were a bit outside of society. He had a camp, an alternative school. Every time he spoke he touched my heart. Deep, kind, poetic. He brought Five to fold to GC.. Radically changed our voting process. < this story has glad, sad, and mad in it.

Nordic OST on OST. See the waves moving up and down, as if the ocean was breathing. We sat where we could see the lake, the cliffs. It made the talking difficult, because the surrounding took our attention. There were two eagles, grabbing the same fish, falling.. Both dropped the fish 10m above the ground..It was like a dance.

Gathering @Birgitt/Ward's. People from a lot of different countries joining. We would go to the lake. The circle was so large that we couldn't hear each other. It was funny to be intimate and shouting..

The year of our first strategic plan. "Whoever comes". Someone said 'the strategic plan belong to the leadership team'. Sigh of relief: not everything has to be done by the leadership. Anna Caroline called People joining as they are in GC meetings. Eating in meetings, sleeping in meetings.

GLAD - Curious about OHB workshop Anna Caroline/Thomas were offering. I Curious about OHB workshop Anna Caroline/Thomas were offering. I researched GC, and found a GC consultants website. On it, Birgit described her way of working. I loved her style of writing, clear, honest, open, with spirit and love. I was convinced: I trust her, this is the kind of people I can connect with. I joined the workshop and absolutely love the DET.
